Heat Causes Loss of Life.

Heat caused the rails to swell and 'buckle' on the L. & N. railroad three miles North of Livingston yesterday and a wreck, in which two persons lost their lives, was the result. No. 23 was derailed and John Davis, engineer, whose home was in Louisville, and N. F. Carey, fireman, also of Louisville, were killed instantly and Express Messenger Bridges, of Louisville, had three ribs broken. The train was running at a 40-mile per hour rate and the wonder is that the loss of life was not much greater. The engine was completely

The Vacation Idea.

I want to go to the mountains And breathe that fresh, keen air, And I'd like to take a motor

And try the roads up there! Then I'd not dispise a fortnight Or a month down by the sea. With the salt-wave tonic proving And bringing health to me.

Then, of course, a yachting party Would pleasure much increase While on a well fixed cottage I wouldn't mind a lease; Or a hotel suite up northward

In Canada's cool clime, Would help to make life pleasant And vary my rest time. It goes without much saving That clothes of every style,

For sport and ball and lounging,

And plenty of spending money-I say, it seems to me There's sense in this idea Of elastic currencee.
